

TIMELESS

Time eludes our schedules
with reference to a limit.

And freedom is so precious, rare,
expansion, flexibility within it.

If we could live without a watch,
to tick the moments passing,
Treasuring each now for now
and not for something passing.

TIC TOC, TIC TOC, you're persistently reminding me
Of things to do and schedules to keep.
Please stop-
and set me FREE.
